

PALLIATIVE (SUPPORTIVE) CARE

in the Sidney Kimmel Cancer Center
Catchment Area

HIGHEST RATES OF NEVER HAVING HEARD OF PALLIATIVE CARE FOUND IN:

- Individuals with less than a high school degree
- Individuals aged 18-49 years
- Black or African American residents

34% OF RESIDENTS
ASSOCIATE PALLIATIVE CARE WITH DEATH

8 OUT OF 10 RESIDENTS AGREE IT IS A DOCTOR'S OBLIGATION TO INFORM PATIENTS OF THE OPTION OF PALLIATIVE CARE

THOMAS JEFFERSON NEU CENTER FOR SUPPORTIVE MEDICINE AND CANCER SURVIVORSHIP

Provides proactive, engaging support geared toward achieving the best quality of life throughout an otherwise stressful time.

Includes physical, emotional, social, financial, spiritual, and recreational support.

Sidney Kimmel Cancer Center
Jefferson Health® | NCI – designated

For more information please call (215) 955-1888

Data from the Sidney Kimmel Cancer Center Catchment Area Survey, 2020